DEMOCRATIC STRATEGY.

A Chicago paper publishes a special from Washington purporting to be authentic, which says the Democratic leaders have matured a plan to elect the next President. The scheme is, according to this authority, to split the Chicago convention and put two tickets in the field. The candidates on these tickets are expected to receive a majority of the electoral vote, and after election unite and elect the President.

It is told that the silver men have been advocating this proposition for months, and that lately the gold men have been giving it consideration and that Democratic hopes are higher than they have been for two years.

While it is not probable that any such arrangement has been made or even seriously considered it is possible to elect a President who has been nominated by any convention. Political conventions are not recognized by law. They are machines devised by politicians for concentrating voters on one person. In the early days of the Republic there were no national political conventions. Presidential electors were chosen from respectable citizens in each State to elect a President. There were no platforms and the electors voted for whom they pleased.

Should those who believe in the re-nomination of silver elect a majority of the Presidential electors, though under different party names, there would be nothing to prevent the electors from combining on one man for President and electing him, but there is a stronger probability of the gold men of both old parties uniting than there is of the silver wing of the Democratic party uniting with the gold men to elect a President. Two-thirds of the members of the Democratic party are silver men, as are fully one-third of the Republicans. It is much more probable that the gold Democrats would give their support to the gold Republicans than to the silver wing of the Democratic party.

SILVER MEN GO IN TO WIN.

A square fight on the silver question has been made in Missouri and Alabama, and in each the silver men have been victorious. In 78 counties in Missouri silver delegates have been elected to the State Convention, and outside the city of St. Louis the champions of the white metal will have it all their own way. The St. Louis Globe Democrat, the most radical gold standard paper in the Mississippi Valley, is disgusted, and says the job of proving to the country that Missouri is not wedded to that relic of barbarism, the silver standard, will now devolve entirely on the Republicans.

In Alabama, the primaries resulted in the nomination of Joseph F. Johnston, silverite, over Clark, the gold advocate. Johnston is said to have 374 votes out of 504 votes, though there is some dispute over the delegations in two counties.

The Alabama and Missouri delegations to the Chicago Convention will join with other silver delegations to secure a free coinage candidate on a free coinage platform. As they are in the fight for principle, they will not participate in the nomination of a gold standard man, nor pledge themselves to support him. They expect assistance from at least twenty other States, and will have sufficient backing to set up business on their own account in opposition to the gold men.

No silver man worthy the name will remain an active participant in a State or National Convention, in this year of grace, which nominates a single gold standard candidate on a gold standard platform. Monetary reform is the issue, and he who is not for it is against it. Straddling and double-dealing cannot be countenanced by real silver men, who want the mints opened to gold and silver, as the founders of the Government provided they should be.

CHURCH AND STATE IN MEXICO.

Mexico is a Catholic country, that is nearly all the inhabitants are members of the Catholic Church, yet there is complete separation of church and State. The laws in this respect are said to be more strict than those of any other country on the globe. All the church property belongs to the Government and no religious society is permitted to own real estate. No priest or preacher of any denomination is permitted to wear church robes upon the public street. There are no sectarian schools and children of all religious denominations are admitted to the schools upon equal terms. If a community desires to build a church or house of worship, or requires a resident priest it must apply to the Minister of Education, from whom the national church receives its authority and by which it has been controlled for years. Some people think that there is too much interference on the part of the State with religion, while others are of a different opinion. It would seem that a community desirous of building a house of worship should have the privilege of doing so, if it bore the expense, and that it should have the right to select a minister of its choice to officiate in the church without consulting a State official. The Mexicans do not think so, however, and according to their law every church is a public building and every clergyman is licensed by the State to officiate.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

Senator Tillman, a Leading Democrat, for Free Coinage.

HOLMES' STORY A FAKE.

The New President of the Central Pacific an Old Neveadan.

TILLMAN FOR SILVER.

He Speaks Words That Cannot Be Misunderstood.

DENVER, April 14.—Senator Tillman arrived in Denver this morning and was met at the train by leading Democrats. To-night a public reception will be tendered the distinguished visitor, and to-morrow he will address the State Democratic Convention. He said that the outlook was altogether favorable for the Democratic Convention to be controlled by the free silver wing. He will probably not leave Denver until Thursday.

"I am a Democrat," said Senator Tillman to-day to Mayor McMurry, "but if I may be permitted to offer a word of advice to the free silver Republicans of Colorado, send Senator Teller to the St. Louis Convention as the Chairman of the delegation, with instructions, which he will gladly obey, to lead his delegation from the convention hall the moment McKinley or any other gold bug is nominated for President on any other platform than the one demanding free silver without awaiting the consent of England." He concluded: "The country is going to hell. Let us show the world that we know it and that we are determined to interfere."

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Senator Morrill of Vermont reached the age of 86 years to-day, and the event was referred to in the opening prayer of the Chaplain, who spoke of the white-haired Senator as hale in body, clear, sound and vigorous in intellect, and esteemed by his brother Senators, by his State and by the whole country. At the conclusion of the prayer, Morrill received congratulations from many of his associates. Shortly after the session opened, Morrill announced that on Thursday next he would speak on the necessity of additional headquarters for the National Museum.

Squires was then recognized for a speech on Coast Defenses. Squires said that all the evidence taken by the Committee on Coast Defenses was lamentable in the extreme. The defensive works are of a character incapable of resisting modern artillery. The evidence is overwhelming that in case of war, our whole people would suffer immeasurably. He concluded: "We are encircled as a nation with a chain of foreign fortresses and coaling stations, impervious to attack, while our rich sea coast cities and ports, including San Diego, San Francisco, Portland and Puget Sound, are dominated, exposed and helpless against the attack of foreign powers that possess navies."

Spain Will Fight Rather Than Lose Cuba.

LONDON, April 14.—A dispatch from Madrid to the Pall Mall Gazette says: "Senor Canovas del Castillo, the Spanish Premier is ill and cannot be interviewed. His relatives, however, confirm the existence of a 'communiqué' from President Cleveland; but in the present state of public feeling it will be impossible for the Government to accept his offer. Matters are very complicated, and while the Government will do everything in its power to avoid a quarrel with the United States it will prefer to fight rather than lose Cuba through foreign pressure. The coming Cortes will grant Cuba every reasonable franchise to be enjoyed under the Spanish flag."

A Former Constable Elected President of the Central Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Central Pacific Company to-day the Board of Directors was unanimously re-elected. Subsequently the directors organized by the election of the following officers: President, Isaac L. Heagerty; Vice President, C. P. Huntington; Second Vice President, W. H. Mills; Third Vice President, J. E. Gales; Secretary, William Thompson.

Drowned in a Bathtub.

MERCED, Cal., April 14.—M. Hartman, a leading merchant, was found floating in a bathtub at his home this morning, dead. He had been told by a physician to take a hot bath before retiring, for insomnia. Last night he went to the bath and was not seen till found dead this morning. It is not known whether the drowning in his own bathtub was suicide or an accident.

Holmes' Confession Probably a Fake. PITTSBURGH, April 14.—Insurance Inspector Cary of the Fidelity Mutual Life of Philadelphia, in which Holmes' victim, Pictol, was insured, says that Holmes did not commit all the murders that he confessed to. Kate Darke is in Omaha, Druzel is in Michigan, Potua Van Fassant is in Arkansas and Robert Latimer is in Chicago.

SILVER SENTIMENT GROWING.

Senator Teller Receiving Petitions From Labor Organizations.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—That silver sentiment is growing with the masses in the East, is demonstrated by the petitions which Senator Teller is receiving from branches of the American Federation of Labor in all parts of the country. He has so far received 25 or 30 of these, each one representing several branch organizations, and to-day presented a batch from the following organizations:

Central Labor Union, Cleveland, O., composed of 52 labor organizations. American Agents Association, Findlay, O., representing a membership of 12,000.

Scranton Central Labor Union, Scranton, Pa., representing 3,500 workmen of all branches of trade.

Brookton Central Labor Union, Brookton, Mass., representing 4,000 organized workers, and from a dozen other unions.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

FINAL RESOLUTIONS.

Read and Adopted at the State Teachers' Institute.

During the business session of the State Teachers' Institute of Friday afternoon, April 10, 1896, the following resolutions were submitted by the respective committees:

The following resolution was submitted by Mr. Walter C. Gayhart:

WHEREAS, Hon. H. C. Cutting, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has been untiring in his efforts to make this Institute a success, and has done all in his power to provide for the comfort and welfare of its members; be it

Resolved, That he is entitled to our cordial thanks for his many kindnesses and our congratulations for the success of this, his first Institute undertaking, and the great good that is thereby accomplished.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote of the Institute.

The Committee on Industrial School submitted the following:

WHEREAS, The teachers of Nevada realize the sad need of a provision for misguided boys and girls who yearly get out of the reach of school influence to the great injury of our State and of its various towns; and

WHEREAS, It is not good policy, good morality, or good humanity either to cast boys or girls criminally inclined, into prison, or to let them drift on in a downward career; therefore be it

Resolved, That we earnestly request the Legislature of the State when next in session, to provide a modern industrial school, which shall be a home, a school, a farm and a workshop in the best sense of all the terms.

H. H. HOWE,
M. R. AVERILL,
FRANCIS E. SHORT,

The foregoing report and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the institute.

The Committee on High Schools submitted the following:

WHEREAS, The statutes of Nevada now provide for the establishment and maintenance of County High Schools in the State; and

WHEREAS, The imperative necessity of such schools is manifest for bridging over the chasm that now exists between the common schools and the University; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of such schools must awaken educational enthusiasm throughout the community in which they are located, with a spirit of higher education and furnish a means whereby preparatory instruction for college will be within the reach of all; be it

Resolved, That it is the wish of this Institute that all consistent effort be exerted by the several members of this body, looking to the establishment of such schools in all the counties of the State where the same can manifestly be maintained.

ORVIS RING,
B. F. LYNCH,
E. E. WINDFRET,
MISS J. SHERMAN,
MISS B. A. ATHONTON.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Institute.

The Committee on State Journal submitted the following report and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The urgent necessity of assistance in securing to the teaching fraternity throughout the State the new ideas and practices of successful teachers in other places, and in providing a constant benefit to the public schools by raising the standard of teaching and unifying the work is manifest; and

WHEREAS, There exists imperative need of harmonizing the system of the public schools with the University, and of offering means of inter-communication between these two related institutions; and

WHEREAS, A "State Educational Journal," emanating from the great body of teachers and devoted to the foregoing interests is the most practical means to this end; be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Institute that such a periodical be established, and be it further

Resolved, That our Committee on the Revision of School Laws be instructed to formulate such a bill for presentation at the next session of the Legislature, as in their judgment shall be deemed most expedient for the accomplishment of this purpose.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE FIRE.

Phil Reiber's Steam Laundry, Corner Fourth and Ralston Streets, Totally Destroyed.

At a little before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire alarm was sounded from the western part of town, and it was almost immediately ascertained that Reiber's steam laundry, on the corner of Fourth and Ralston streets, was on fire. Within three minutes after the bell struck one steamer was on the way to the scene of the fire, and in a remarkably short time, considering the distance, a stream was playing on the burning building. Owing to quite a heavy breeze and the location of the fire, Chief Hodgkinson did not wait for developments, but ordered the second steamer out, which was soon on the ground. The fire boys were highly commended for their prompt work and the quick mastery over the flames, notwithstanding the high wind and the close proximity to a lot of frame buildings that had they taken fire a terrible loss might have occurred. For over a block to the lee of the fire people moved out of their homes, preparing for the worst, as for a while it looked as if it would be among the impossibilities to save the block.

Chief Hodgkinson handled the streams wondrously well and with the help of a bucket brigade on the out-buildings all danger was soon averted. A number of strangers remarked that the boys did as pretty and quick work as they had ever seen by city firemen and they are deserving of all the praise that can be given.

The laundry building, together with its contents, was a total loss. The building belonged to A. McIntosh, and it is reported that Thos. Roberts held a mortgage of $1,200 upon it.

The machinery and apparatus in the building was the property of Major Phil Reiber, who only day before yesterday had purchased the interest of his partner.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Major Reiber says that it was first discovered in what is called the starch room adjoining the dryer. He rushed to the engine to turn on the water, but was driven back by the flames. Nothing was saved except a few bundles of clothes belonging to patrons and many of them are severe losers. The loss of the building and contents is estimated at $3,500; no insurance. It is a severe blow to Major Reiber, for he had just succeeded in completing his arrangements to push the business ahead, but in a few moments everything was wiped out. His future movements had not been decided upon last evening.

GOVERNOR SADLER.

He Has Nothing to Say at the Present Time.

Governor Sadler arrived yesterday from an extensive tour through Eureka and White Pine counties, where he has mining and other interests. A JOURNAL reporter showed him a dispatch from Carson published in Monday's Examiner. He said:

"Governor Jones was an old friend of mine. We had been intimately acquainted for twenty-five years. I regret his death, and he is not yet buried, and while what is mortal of him lays in state at the State Capitol my lips are sealed so far as announcing any policy that I may have regarding the State Government. This much I will say, however, that my views on the silver question are the same as they have been for years, and I know of no reason why I should change. There is in my opinion nothing that will benefit Nevada or the country as much as free coinage and I am for that all the time."

PLACER MINES IN WASHOE VALLEY

Rich Ground Near the Harris Mine.

It is reported that rich placer mines have been discovered in Washoe Valley, near the Harris mine. The Enterprise says the discovery was made some time ago, but no location notices were posted until the water right was secured.

Now, however, everything has been arranged and the work will go right along. Sluice boxes are now being made at the shops in Carson. They have purchased the ranch on which the mine is located, as well as the water right. The consideration is said to have been $2,000.

It is placer and very rich, and all the promising ground in the neighborhood has been located. W. M. Little, Henry Fothergill and other Carson men are the fortunate owners. A party upon examining the "find" yesterday pronounced it to be a veritable bonanza.

OUT FOR A HOLIDAY.

Prominent Nevada Newspaper Men Leave for Southern California.

Members of the Nevada Press Association left last evening for a jaunt through Southern California. The Pullman car "Tangier" was engaged, and for the next ten or twelve days it will be really their home, although speeding through the valleys and over the mountains of California, stopping perhaps a day here and a night there, to give the Nevada editors and members of their families a pleasant sojourn among the waving wheat fields and orange groves, as well as happy experiences in many of the towns and cities of our sister State that the excursionists will remember with pleasure all of their lives.

Their journey will take them to Sacramento, where they will be breakfasted by the California Press Association this morning, after which they go to Lathrop, thence to Santa Barbara, witness the Rose Festival, back to Los Angeles and witness the annual Flower Festival, then return via San Jose and San Francisco for home. Points of interest on the journey will be visited and such time allotted to these as may afterwards be arranged.

Those leaving last evening were as follows: C. H. Sproule and wife, Elko; W. W. Booher and nephew, Elko; M. S. Riddle and wife and G. R. Vardy of Deeth, J. E. McKinnon and wife, Virginia; S. P. Davis and wife, Carson; E. J. Parkinson of Carson; Isaac Oloovich of Carson; George M. Smith and wife and Mrs. Beers of Genoa; R. O. Blossom and sister of Battle Mountain; Ed. Kelley, wife and daughter and Miss Stella Webster, Reno; Mrs. E. H. Hogan, Reno; N. A. Hummel of Wadsworth; C. W. Patterson, Yerington; Allen C. Bragg, Reno; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stubbs and daughter, Reno.

Injured at the Fire.

Charles Barton, a machinist who has only been in town a day or two, was seriously hurt at the fire yesterday. He was working like a hero in assisting to save adjoining property by passing water up on a building, when some one during the excitement carelessly threw a heavy iron bucket from the roof which struck Barton on the forehead. The bucket cut through his hat like a knife and cut a gash just below his hair and above the left eye over two inches long, laying bare the skull. The wounded man was taken to Dr. Bishop's office, where the wound was dressed. Barton is a stranger and is deserving of credit for his endeavors to save property where he had no interest or object in taking any risk other than to help his fellow man.

FUN IN ECONOMY.

One Woman Thinks It Is a Fascinating
Sport, but Not Successful.

"Oh, but economy is a fascinating theory," exclaimed the woman in a tailor's frock. "It's almost as exciting as a lottery ticket or playing the races.
You put in a little and get out a lot of something. I always read those articles in the housekeeping papers that tell how you can make a walnut sideboard
out of a pine piano box and cozy corners out of last year's chicken coops and canechalls that fill all beholders with envy out of your old overalls."

"Yes," agreed said she in the picture book, "I think those descriptions are perfectly fascinating, and I mean to try some of them when I get a little money ahead. I think of being able to take a box of old packing cases and by means of a lot of pinch and gliding and ornamental tacks, being able to transform them into chairs and bookcases that nobody but your best enemy could tell from empire furniture."

"Don't you believe it," said the old maid. "I've tried it. I saved up my broom handles once to make a gypsy table that was described as making an ideal table. I put 47 different coats of paint on those broomsticks in an effort to persuade them to become cherubs. Then I hired a carpenter, who worked two days trying to fit the broomsticks into a circle of a foot or so so the thing would stand up. I bought wadding to pad the top, and felt to cover it, and fringe to go around it, and ornamental nails to hold it on. When it was done, I had spent three times what a good table would have cost at a shop, but I had a righteous glow of having economized
that was worth any money."

The woman in the tailor frock laughed. "Ah, my dear," she said, "we have to pay for everything in this world that is worth having—even economy!"—

De Tabley and His Books.

The side on which I was most capable of appreciating Lord de Tabley's gifts
as a collector was the bibliographical.
If I am anything of a connoisseur in this direction, I owe it to his training.
His zeal in the amassing of early editions of the English poets was extreme;
he was one of those who think nothing of hanging about a bookshop at 6 o'clock in the morning waiting for the shutters to be taken down. But his zeal was eminently according to knowledge. He valued his first edition for the text's sake, not for the bare fact of rarity. Every book he bought he read, and with a critical gusto. A little anecdote may illustrate his spirit as a collector. In 1877
he secured, by a happy accident, a copy of Milton's "Poems" of 1645, a book which he had never met with before.
Too eager to wait for the post, he sent a messenger round to my house with a note to announce not merely the joyful fact, but—this is the interesting point—a discovery he had made in the volume—namely, that the line in the "Nativity Ode," "which in all later editions has run—Or'd in a rainbow, and like clothes wearing,
originally stood—
The jewel'd urne of the rainbow wearing,
"which," as he said, "is a grand mouthful of sound and over so much better than the weak 'like glories.'"—Contemporary Review

Diamondine.

A very attractive ornamental art of recent introduction is, as stated, the production of an imitation beadwork on fabrics of various kinds by means of what is known as glass powder, or "diamondine," the result being patterns which present an appearance similar to that exhibited by glass beads on close or open meshed fabrics. The method of operation in carrying out this idea is said to be simple—that is, the fabric is coated by means of molding boards with resinous substances, composed of, say, 90 parts of gualacum and 10 parts of alcohol, dissolved in 100 parts of alcohol, 10 parts of glycerin being added to the solution under continuous stirring.
After the composition has been carefully distributed over the surface of the fabric the glass powder is strewn on it and firmly pressed by repeated rolling, etc., the glass powder being prepared by thorough pulverizing or pounding, and may be of any or many colors.—New York Sun.

Flower Festivals, Fiestas,
Rose Carnivals,

AND THE LIKE, WILL BE THE DE-LIGHT of California for the next two or three months.

Santa Barbara Flower Festival, the fame of which is world-wide, and the glory of which, like that of Solomon, is not half told, opens April 15. Queen Flora will reign three days an arbitrary and absolute despot.

La Fiesta de Los Angeles, now fixed in the chronology of California feasts, and not less illustrious than its older prototype, commences April 22, and the riot of fun will spread over four days.

The Carnival of Roses, to take place in San Jose, May 6th to 9th, inclusive, though a more recent candidate for favors of the fun-loving world, yet because of the limitless possibilities of the Garden City for anything that is made of roses is quite as full of promise.

JOURNAL BUILDING, RENO, NEVADA.

At a card party in the northwest a few evenings ago a cross eyed man was posing as the man who knew it all, giving his positive opinions on every subject in a loud voice and otherwise making himself a general nuisance. A Boston girl was particularly annoyed at the lordly air he assumed and the attacks he had made on some of her pet theories.
She made up her mind to bowl him over
if she ever got a chance.

It came sooner than expected. A few minutes later the Boston girl was the partner of the cross eyed man, who immediately proceeded to give elaborate instructions as to how certain cards should be played to insure them the game. He finished by saying, "Now, go ahead, Miss Back Bay, and remember I have my eye on you." She never looked up, but in the most innocent way imaginable, said, "Which eye, Mr.
Jones?" It broke up the party.—Washington Post.
